Naples, February 28, N. S.

THE Court has ordered the Council of Commerce to ſignify to the Merchants, that they may load Goods for Conſtantinople on board the two Ships of War St. Philip and Parthenope, which are on their Departure to carry the King's Ambaſſadour to the Porte. Copenhagen, April 1, N. S. On the 25th paſt died the Grand Veneur, M. Gram, who was likewiſe Privy Councellor, Knight of the Order of the Elephant, and Bailiff of Fridericksbourg and Cronenbourg. The Poſt of Grand Veneur is the moſt Lucrative in this Country; and as the Grand Marſhal, eldeſt Son to the deceaſed, is likely to ſucceed to the aforeſaid Baillages, and of Courſe muſt leave the Court, this Accident is like to occaſion two very conſiderable Vacancies. All the Frigates are actually in ſuch a Readineſs, that they may put to Sea in Eight or Ten Days Time; and they have now begun to work upon the Men of War. Yeſterday the Prince Royal of Denmark entred into the 19th Year of his Age, but as it happened to be Good-Friday, his Birth-Day was not celebrated.

Hague, April 7. N. S. On Wedneſday laſt the Affair of the ſecond Augmentation of 10000 Men was reſumed and finally concluded by the States General. Letters from Vienna of the 7th of March laſt adviſe, that the Turks had not only acknowledged the Queen of Hungary, but that all Points in Diſpute between them and the Court of Vienna had been compromiſed and finiſhed, by this latter's coming into all the Demands of the Porte, with reſpect to the Limits on the Side of Boſnia; as the Porte is ſaid to have done into thoſe of the Court of Vienna, with reſpect to thoſe on the Side of the Danube. Count Golowkin has received by the laſt Poſt, Orders to animate this State to declare for the Support of its Engagements in Favour of the Queen of Hungary.
